

Mr. PRINCE ACHEAMPONG,
DOCTORIAL CANDIDATE,
GRIFFITH UNIVERSITY

MOBILE: 0423390670

EMAIL: prince.acheampong@griffithuni.edu.au

Mr. Prince Acheampong is currently a PhD Candidate of the Department of Accounting, Finance and Economics (AFE). Prince is currently working on the topic: Financing Build-to-Rent Affordable Housing in Australia; the Role of Institutional Investor, for his PhD and is the Research Assistant (RA) for a number of housing affordability studies currently on going at Griffith University and Sustainable Living Infrastructure Consortium in Australia. Prince holds two masters degrees in Finance; an MBA (Finance) and MPhil in Finance all from the Nkwame Nkrumah University of Science Technology in Ghana West Africa. Mr. Acheampong prior to enrolling as a PhD Candidate was a full-time Lecturer at Koforidua Technical University in Ghana for five (5) years and also a part-time Lecturer at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science Technology Business School, for three (3) years; where I taught courses including Corporate finance and International Finance at both undergraduate and Post graduate levels. Mr. Acheampong is also a chartered accountant and a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Ghana. He has a number of Journal article publications in the areas of Corporate Finance, Asset Pricing, Accounting and Financial Econometrics in both ranked and unranked Journals to his credit.